

FARM TRAINING

The Fields Forward Food Extension & Training group is helping to offer agriculture and food business planning and marketing workshops this fall.

If you are considering starting a farm business, have a value added product you'd like to add to your existing business or a marketing plan you would like to develop - there is something for you.

DO YOU HAVE A FOOD OR FARMING BUSINESS YOU ARE DEVELOPING?

- October 15th - Farm Start-up for new farmers
- October 18 & 19th - Agri-Food Business Planning workshop
- Late October/early November - Marketing & Brand Development
